FATHERS DAY FREE FISHING

Montana waives fishing license requirements statewide during the Father's Day weekend. Anyone—resident or nonresident—can fish entirely without a license on these specific days.

However, all other rules, catch limits, and size restrictions remain strictly in effect.

License: Not required.

Who: Residents and nonresidents.

- Regulations: All bag limits, size restrictions, and gear rules still apply.
- State Parks: If you fish at a designated state park, you still need a conservation license or daily park pass.
- Special Waters: Waters with special permitting (like paddlefish) require those specific tags.

Brandy

My name is Brandy and I'm going on two years old now.

Isn't that amazing? I'm so pretty and I was such a good Mom to my one kitten and NINE foster kittens. Now I am waiting for MY turn to go to a home who wants a young (and remember pretty), playful girl who knows how to just be, present. I don't demand or trip you. But you know I'm there, warming your home, waiting for pets. Until it's time to play. Then it's game
