Ready, Get Set... It's Small Business Season!

It's officially here, and we're celebrating the people and places that make our community special! From November 1 through December 31, we're shining a spotlight on the small businesses that make the holidays brighter, our lives easier, and our community feel like home.

This year's theme is "It's the Thought That Counts."

Because every thoughtful choice matters. Whether you're shopping, dining, booking a service, sharing a recommendation, or simply showing appreciation, you're helping support the people behind our local businesses.

Let's make this a season of thoughtful choices and a strong community!
